

Peggy Kinder

Trillium Learning, Director of Strategic Partnerships

SUMMARY OF EXPERIENCE

Peggy Kinder has worked in public and private education as well as in the for profit and not for profit arenas. She recently retired from Pearson Education where she served as Senior Vice President of Service and Support for the Curriculum group. She previously served as the director for the Distance Learning Resource Network (DLRN) at WestEd. DLRN was a national dissemination project designed to improve the quality of teaching and learning by making available the most current information on effective practices using distance learning technologies. As an administrator with a diverse background in the public and private sector, she has been responsible for the implementation of many new and emerging technologies. Prior to joining WestEd Kinder served as the Deputy Superintendent in Orange County Florida. She worked at the district for ten years in several administrative capacities including Associate Superintendent for Technology Services. She also spent 5 years as the Director of Education for Sea World of Florida.
